Baseball fans can now use their same day Cincinnati Reds game ticket for a free and convenient ride to and from Great American Ball Park aboard the Cincinnati Bell Connector.

Through the remainder of the 2019 season, anyone with a valid game ticket can now ride the streetcar for free all day.

Participating fans will need to have their ticket (digital or physical tickets accepted) present to show the fare inspector upon request. Tickets are only valid for fare on the day of the game.

The promotion is made possible thanks to a generous donation from Woods Hardware

Bike to Work Day

Bike and Ride the Cincinnati Bell Connector

National Bike to Work Day is May 17! With level boarding and wide aisles, the streetcar is a great way to get around town with a bike. Catch up on our tips for riding near streetcar tracks here.

OTR Bar Features Streetcar Arrival Signal

Cobblestone OTR features streetcar signal light

Thanks to Cobblestone, in OTR, the days of trying to guess when to close your tab and head out to catch the Cincinnati Bell Connector to your next destination are over. Cobblestone is home to a special light that lets patrons know when a streetcar is about to arrive at the nearest station. Check out our conversation with owner/operator Mark Farris for more information!
